Letterkenny

The Cathedral Town

YOUR JOURNEY

There are 3 ways to get from Dublin Airport to Letterkenny:
by bus, plane or car

The Cathedral of St. Eunan and St Columba was built between 1890 to 1900 and is the only Catholic cathedral in the county.

TRAVEL GUIDE

BUS

Return ticket approx. €33pp

Bus Eireann operates a bus from Dublin Airport to Letterkenny. You should book your tickets online and leave 1.5 hours gap between your arrival time and the bus departure time.

CAR

Hiring a car for 7 days from about €170

You can hire a car and drive to Letterkenny. There are several reliable car hire companies present at Dublin Airport. Please note that we drive on the left side of the road and the driver sits on the right side of the car!

PLANE

Return ticket approx. €120pp

Amapola operates flights twice daily from Dublin Airport into the World's Most Scenic Airport!
Please note that you will need to take a taxi or a bus to Letterkenny as this airport is about 60km far from Letterkenny.

BUS INFORMATION FOR EU, EEA AND SWISS CITIZENS

When booking your bus ticket online, you can choose Terminal 2, if your plane arrives to Terminal 2 OR choose one of the Zones from the drop down menu if your plane arrives to Terminal 1. There are a lot of guides (wearing bright yellow jackets), and I highly advise you to ask them which zone your bus is departing from as this can change without the post signs being updated.

You can also purchase your ticket on the bus by paying in cash (Euro only), however, the ticket prices online are usually cheaper.

Please note, that Route 32 bus DOES cross the UK border. If you are an EU, EEA and Swiss citizen, you can transit through/travel to the UK if you hold a valid passport. Please note that there is no hard border, so there will be no passport control. The journey takes approximately 3.5 hours.

You can book the tickets here.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE WALKING DISTANCE BETWEEN TERMINAL 2 AND 1 IS ABOUT 5 MINUTES.

BUS INFORMATION FOR NON-EU, EEA AND SWISS CITIZENS

When booking your bus ticket online, you can choose Terminal 2, if your plane arrives to Terminal 2 OR choose one of the Zones from the drop down menu if your plane arrives to Terminal 1. There are a lot of guides (wearing bright yellow jackets), and I highly advise you to ask them which zone your bus is departing from as this can change without the post signs being updated.

You can also purchase your ticket on the bus by paying in cash (Euro only), however, the ticket prices online are usually cheaper.

Please note, that you will need to take 2 buses: Route 23, from Dublin Airport to Sligo, then Route 64 bus from Sligo to Letterkenny. These buses DON'T cross the UK border. However, you will need to make sure to get off the bus in Letterkenny as Route 64's final destination is Derry, UK. The journey takes approximately 5 hours.

COUNTRYSIDE

RENTING A CAR

Hiring a car from Dublin Airport (DUB) is simple. Hertz, Europcar, Avis, Enterprise, Budget and local operator Dooley have a presence in Terminal 1's arrivals hall and Terminal 2's multi-storey car park.

The road signage is excellent and you can easily navigate without a GPS. However, most cars have a built in GPS or you can use your phone's GPS. If you are an EU, EEA OR SWISS CITIZEN, you can follow the fastest route below:

M1 --> N2 --> A5 --> N14 (Dublin Airport via Dundalk, Monaghan, Omagh (UK) and Strabane (UK)).

Approximate journey time: 3 hours.

If you are a NON-EU, EEA OR SWISS CITIZEN, you can follow the fastest route below:

M4 --> N4 --> N15 --> N13
(Dublin Airport via Mullingar, Sligo, Donegal town)

Approximate journey time: 4.5 hours.
